The Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
Law Department, Bangalore.

Dated Bangalore, the 22nd November 1939.

Reciprocal arrangements for extradition for offences under the Defence of India Act and Rules thereunder.

SIR,

The Central Government consider it desirable that reciprocal arrangements should be made between them and Indian States for the extradition of persons from British India and vice versa for offences punishable under the Defence of India Act and Rules. The Central Government propose, provided that these arrangements can be made, to issue a notification under the last entry in the First Schedule to the Indian Extradition Act, XV of 1903, in order to provide that such offences are extradition offences.

The Resident will be grateful if the Government of Mysore will agree on this understanding to issue a similar notification under the last entry of the First Schedule to the Mysore Extradition Act, VI of 1938.

I am to enquire whether the Government of Mysore agree to the proposed arrangements.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

SECRETARY TO THE RESIDENT.
